ABOUT ME

I'm a fresh graduate who loves helping people improve their English in a simple and practical way. I believe learning should feel comfortable, not stressful, so I focus on patience, encouragement, and real conversations. I'm confident using digital tools to make lessons more engaging, and I'm always willing to adjust to what each learner needs. My goal is to make students feel more confident using English in everyday life.

OBJECTIVE

Fresh graduate eager to start a career as an ESL educator. I want to use my teaching skills and patience to guide students in improving their communication.
